Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

THE $10,000 PRIZE—No. 6739 which came out a prize of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS yesterday afternoon in the Liberty Engine House lottery was sold at COHEN'S Lottery and Exchange Office, to Mr. John Andrews, vender of tickets—Mr. A. has this fortunate number unsold.

This brilliant lottery still contains 2 Capital prizes of $20,000 each, besides 5000—1000,—500, &c. &c. price of tickets only $6 1-2...Not two blanks to a prize in the scheme.

NEW YORK, May 8

Yesterday arrived at this port, via Halifax, the first British Packet since the termination of hostilities between this country and Great Britain, This Packet the Hinchbrook, left Falmouth on the first of April, arrived at Halifax in twenty five days, and has had a passage of six days from the latter port.

The squadron at this port destined for the Straits, is not yet ready for sea. If it does not sail within a week, com. Decatur, it is said, will not go out, as com. Bainbridge is on the eve of his departure from Boston, as commander in Chief of the expedition.

We understand that our Ghent Commissioners were to sail from France about the first May. The time of their departure had been delayed a month in consequence of the indisposition of Mr. Crawford.

It was last evening whispered that the sailing of the Mediterranean squadron was stopt, and that the unfinished vessels on the Lakes were ordered to be completed!

The official account of the disasters at N. Orleans has received in London, on the 8th of March, and the melancholy Bulletin was immediately issued from the War Department. It is calculated to fill the nation with universal regret, and the advantages which were expected to be derived from the capture of N. Orleans at so great an expense of human life would be made the subject of a serious enquiry.

Port of Salem May 2.

Arrived, private armed brig Grand Turk, Nathan Green, jr. commander; from a cruise of 4 months, (her fifth cruise) off the coast of Brazil, &c. She has made three captures, 2 manned and 1 destroyed, and has brought in 180 packages of valuable dry goods, and 17,500 dollars in specie, taken from prizes.
